Daily Reflection Document - April 15, 2025

Name: Muhammad Fazil

Roll Number: 9179

Today, I created my profile on Truelancer.com, completed the setup, and submitted my first bid. The challenge I got was the platform was asking me about my certifications & work experience before submitting my bid... Without that, it didn't let me submit my bid so I went and add "NONE" to my Work Experience & Certifications section.

Date of bid: April 15, 2025.

Project Description: I am looking for freelancer who can work with me on React & React Native technology

Role is for fulltime during office hours.

Please share you updated resume along with your bid

My Proposal:

2nd bid of the day

Project Description: New app

React native or flutter (will have chat/messaging) and other features

Will need a team

NodeJs/reactJS/ExpressJs experience will be required

Timeline: 1mth

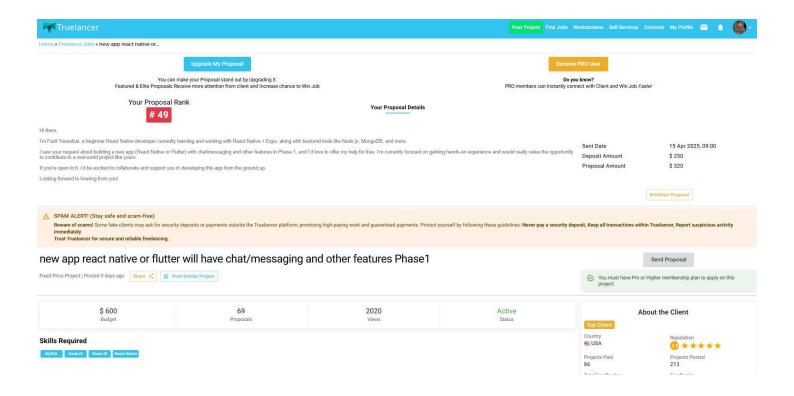

No admin panel in Phase1

You will design, develop, deploy the app in play & app store

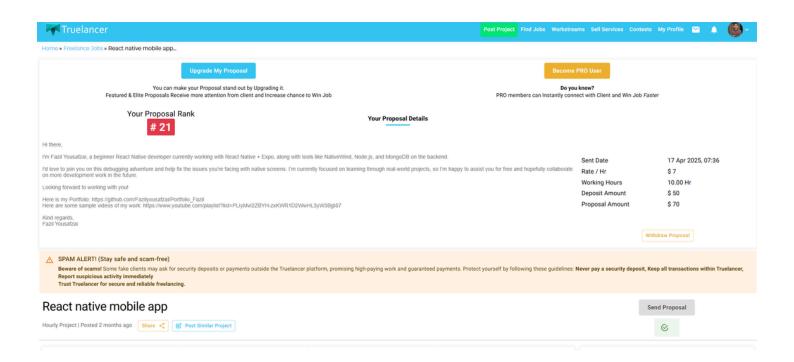

Will share the details thru IM

Good look with your pursuit.

My Proposals:

3rd bid →

4th bid →

5th bid →

Types of projects you bid on:

I've placed bids on various React Native projects, including:

- Fixing deeplink issues and updating libraries
- Implementing chat/messaging features in new apps
- Debugging native screens setup using NativeWind
- HTML to React Native UI conversion
- Screen-based UI + API integration tasks

• Full app development (Phases 1-5) with backend using Node.js.

Response rate:

I have not received any response till now.

What worked well in your bidding approach:

For now, nothing has worked as I didn't see any response from the clients.

What needs improvement:

Maybe I will try a different approach for the 2nd day and see what works well.

Adjustments for tomorrow's bidding strategy:

Umm, Maybe while bidding I can give a little explanation about the service that is required. Tell the client how exactly we can solve it... That will attract the client and will lead them into thinking that I can really get this job done! It will build trust and confidence in client to really invest with me.
